

Parent and Community Code of Conduct

Supporting learning, wellbeing and safety in every Queensland state school

We welcome parents¹ and other members of our diverse community into schools across Queensland.

Working together with their school community², school staff support the learning and wellbeing of every student, and are entitled to a safe work environment.

Parents and other visitors to schools support safety by ensuring their communications and conduct at the school and school activities is respectful.

Elements of engagement It is expected that parents and visitors Parents and visitors to our school communities to our school communities will: demonstrate this by: be polite to others • using polite spoken and written language act as positive role models speaking and behaving respectfully at all times Communication recognise and respect personal differences being compassionate when interacting with others use the school's communication process to • informing staff if the behaviour of others is negatively address concerns impacting them or their family • respecting staff time by accepting they will respond to appropriate communication when they are able • requesting a meeting to discuss any concerns about their child's education — allowing staff time to prepare and appreciating their time may be limited (parents) ensure their child attends school Collaboration • taking responsibility for their child arriving and departing ready to learn school safely on time every day • support the Student Code of Conduct · reading and encouraging their child to understand and follow the Student Code of Conduct recognise every student is important to us valuing each child's education contribute to a positive school culture • acknowledging staff are responsible for supporting the School Culture whole school community work together with staff to resolve issues or · speaking positively about the school and its staff • not making negative comments or gossiping about other respect people's privacy. school community members, including students — in person, in writing or on social media • understanding, at times, compromises may be necessary considering the privacy of all school community members at all times, and understanding that the school cannot share confidential information.

²The term 'school community' refers to staff, students, parents, local business and community organisations and visitors to the school.

^{&#}x27;The term 'parent' refers to parents, carers, guardians and people who exercise parental responsibility for a child.